As Chairperson of the Ethics Committee of the North Carolina Substance Abuse Professional Practice Board, I have reviewed the allegations against you, all submitted evidence, and your response. From this information it appears that the allegations are with merit.

Pursuant to G.S. 150B-22 and Article 5C of Chapter 90 of the North Carolina General Statutes, the Ethics Committee may find that a hearing before the Board is not warranted and issue various levels of discipline, depending upon the misconduct, the actual or potential injury caused, and any aggravating or mitigating factors. In this situation, the Ethics Committee may issue an Admonition.

As a result of this process, you have been offered and you have accepted an informal resolution of this matter, an Admonition.

An Admonition, which is the least serious form of discipline authorized, is imposed in cases in which a substance abuse professional has committed a minor violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct given the measure of actual harm experienced and mitigating factors.

As Chairperson of the Ethics Committee of the North Carolina Substance Abuse Professional Practice Board, it is now my duty to issue this Admonition and I am certain that you will fully understand the spirit in which this duty is performed.

This action is based on a finding that you received a disciplinary action from another professional board and failed to notify the NCSAPPB of this action in violation of North Carolina General Statute 90-113.44(a)(1)

You are hereby admonished by the North Carolina Substance Abuse Professional Practice Board due to your professional misconduct. The Ethics Committee trusts that you will heed this Admonition, that it will be remembered by you, that it will be beneficial to you, and that you will never again allow yourself to depart from adherence to the high ethical standards of the profession.

Done and Ordered, this the 20th day of November, 2015.

Mark Crabtree, MHR, LCAS, CCS
Ethics Committee Chairman
NC Substance Abuse Professional Practice Board
